Liability Waiver Form

1. To ensure the fairness of the event, the participant, hereinafter referred to as 'the entrant', hereby signs this liability waiver form to participate in the '2021 TMUNxUSR Compassionate Community Photography Competition' to appeal to public trust.
2. The entrant guarantees that the visual works and essays submitted are the original work of the entrant and that he/she owns or has the right to use the intellectual property rights of the 'visual works' he/she has created. The entry must be created by the entrant himself/herself and shall not be a copy or excerpt of any other published or unpublished concepts, ideas, and works. The entrant shall be fully responsible for the intellectual property rights and related laws of his/her creative project. If a part or all of the content of the creative project is found to have been copied from others, the Organiser can immediately disqualify the entrant from the competition.
3. The entrant, when applying for the competition, should take the initiative to inform the Organiser if the content of their creative project has already won awards in other competitions. If the entrant does not inform the Organiser, the Organiser may immediately disqualify the entrant from the award and require the entrant to immediately return the prize money they received unconditionally without any objection.
4. The source and origin of all quoted information should be properly cited to avoid violating copyright and other related laws. If there is an infringement of the intellectual property rights of others or other laws and regulations, resulting in litigation disputes, all costs and losses incurred will be the responsibility of the entrant. The Organiser shall not be responsible for the related liabilities.
5. The entrant agrees to provide the Organiser with information regarding their participation in the competition, such as their proposal and personal information. The Organiser will be allowed to use the content of the entrant's creative project in the 2021 TMUNxUSR Compassionate Community Photography Competition. The Organiser will be allowed to preserve and reproduce the content in various forms, such as digitisation, online dissemination, exhibition, and editorial publications. The Organiser has the right to photograph, record, and exhibit the content after submission. Regardless of the form, the Organiser shall be authorised to reproduce it free of charge, and the entrant shall not request compensation.
6. By signing this liability waiver form, the entrant agrees to grant the Organiser a usage license without compensation.
7. Only the winners can collect prizes. Winners must provide proof of identity and other documents and pay the relevant income tax in accordance with the tax laws of the Republic of China (Taiwan).
8. Entries are non-returnable. The entrant should make their own copies.
9. Participants must abide by all the rules and regulations of the competition and decisions made by the judges. Participants will not object if they are eliminated due to their failure to comply with operating hours and regulations.
10. For other unspecified matters, the Organiser reserves the right to amend, suspend, and terminate the event at any time. Participants are not allowed to object.
